

Ms. Golanski

Executive Head of School

Ms. Golanski is the Executive Head of School at Maylan International Academy. She has both a business management and early childhood education background. She held a manufacturing corporate management position for fine leather and engraved stationery, for corporate retail accounts including: Neiman Marcus, Tiffany's, Mark Cross, Lands' End, and Coach. She managed the manufacturing and production of fine gifts, including Heads of State, for the Office of Protocol, for the White House.

Additionally, she brings to Maylan International Academy over 25 years of experience within the education field, from various commercial centers, performing arts schools and Montessori schools. After numerous years of teaching, she transitioned into Montessori school administration as an Assistant Head of School, Executive Head of School, the Principal of a public elementary Montessori charter school and then the Vice President of Montessori Infrastructure and Education.

Ms. Golanski is a certified Montessori Primary Guide and Executive Head of School. She received her diploma from A.M.I. (Association Montessori Internationale.) This association was personally established by Dr. Maria Montessori to train future teachers and administrators with in-depth knowledge and understanding of Montessori theory, principles, and applications. Furthermore, Ms. Golanski is absolutely passionate about the Montessori philosophy and methodology. She takes tremendous pride in running authentic Montessori programs, which guide the students in elegantly prepared environments, with grace and courtesy. She will be placing heavy emphasis on enhancing the Montessori presentations of materials and therefore yielding high academic achievement.
